DEDICATION

Dedication

We six seniors of '55 are proud to dedicate our Annual to a dear friend and former classmate, Gladys Beyers Lefever.

Gladys was always a true friend and her cheerful personality was an inspiration to us all. Though her life was short, it brought sunshine into the lives of all who knew her.

So to the one we feel most deserves this dedication we say---God Bless You, Gladys; we wish you were here with us today.

Class History

(1951) The doors of Amberg high school again opened to another group of freshmen, including Carol Anglemyer, Connie Dunn, Donna Mathis, Gladys Beyers, Patty Marquis, Heraldine Wallace, Charles Fick, Gary Werner, and Gary Roush. The highlights of the year were the Freshman Initiation and the Return Party. Just before the school term ended another student, William Zahorik, entered our class.

(1952) Our sophomore year began with the same students and they continued throughout the year. We initiated the freshmen and they in turn gave a return party.

(1953) By 1953 in our junior year, Gladys Beyers left us for the "field of matrimony." Gary Roush left to go to school in Chicago. Raymond Prue spent the first few weeks of school with us, then he left to join Uncle Sam. Gary Werner also quit school at that time. The highlights of the year were receiving our class rings and the Junior Prom, with Charles Fick and Heraldine Wallace reigning as king and queen.

(1954) Our senior year began with just Charles, Bill, Heraldine, Patty, Connie, Donna, and Carol. Gary Roush joined us for a few weeks and then went on to other work. In November Bill Zahorik left us to join the "fields of labor." Just six of us left to carry on through to the end. Highlights of our senior year began with the Hunter's Ball and will end with the great day of graduation!

Class Poem

River Of Life

When first we launched our little boats
Upon the stream of life,
We were not sure that they would float
Amid such violent strife.
Through early years they passed the test
And brought us safely here;
Now we will see which one is best,
And which the storm will fear.
This stream led to the ocean wide
Where now we launch our boats;
We'll sail the seas of unknown tides;
Then into the harbor float.

-Carol Anglemyer

Class Will

Heraldine wills her beautiful figure to Helen Nutt, her levis to Nancy Schaffer, her ability to hold one man goes to Marion Beattie, her athletic ability goes to the 'A' team of 1955, her Chevrolet goes to Wayne Guy for his own use as soon as he throws away his toys and his bicycle.

Donnie wills her beautiful long hair to Margaret Ann who is always cutting hers, her ability to get along with people goes to Judy Beyers, her personality goes to Prof. Rautio, her brains go to whoever is in desperate need of them. We are sure someone will be able to use them. All the fun she had in A.H. S. goes back to the ringing halls for use in the happy years to come.

Connie wills her quiet air to the one and only Windy Beyers. May he please keep it behind closed lips even if he has to continue to sleep in class. She wills her study habits to Chuck Roush and Ronnie Deau. The Lord only knows how badly they need them.

Carol wills her ability to think to Bill Smeester who is always day-dreaming, her ability to speak to Nancy Schaffer and her small frame she wills to Barbara Zahorik. Her ability to laugh at dry jokes goes to Sandy Beattie. Her many brains go to the future chemistry students. She refuses to give up her future husband.

Charles wills his gift of gab to Russell Werner, his ability to create fun in the classroom goes to the students who think of nothing else but of studying. He wants to keep Marlene H. for keeps sake. His ability to forgive but not forget goes to his fellow classmates.

Patty wills some of her flesh to all the bony girls who usually come in from the 8th grade. She wills her ability to stick to one pal (Donna) from start to the finish of school and all her other pals to whoever is in need of them.

We will all our books back to Amberg high school for the use of the future students. We will our old work-books to whoever has the habit of copying.

We also will our excess knowledge back to the teachers to use for the underclassmen; but we intend to keep some for our own use in the future.

Class Prophecy

As we pull the curtain of Time aside to June of 1965, we see the glittering lights of La Cafe Chere, a magnificent nightclub in the suburbs of Chicago. As we enter under the sweeping palms, we are greeted by the owner, DONNA MATHIS, who is known as Madame Desiree, and her handsome fiance. As a young girl, Donna set her heart on marrying a millionaire and we see she has accomplished her aim.

While we are watching the people enter we see a familiar face--CHARLES FICK, a professor of education at Harvard. Chuck has become famous around the world for his revolutionary methods of education. Chuck is on one of his lecture tours and came here to relax after an arduous day.

As we look around the room we see many familiar faces. Included are two of the graduates of '55, CAROL ANGLEMYER and HERALDINE WALLACE. With them are their husbands, respectively Harvey and Bill. Having met by accident they are sitting there, discussing old times. They discover they are both celebrating their anniversaries.

Suddenly all eyes are drawn to the door through which enters the famous actress, CONNIE DUNN. She is now Hollywood's best-known actress, having outshone Marilyn Monroe and the other bombshells.

Our eyes are now attracted to a table where a young woman in a lovely pink dress is sitting with a handsome attentive man. We recognize her as PATTY MARQUIS, who we find is a nurse and is spending her honeymoon with her doctor husband.

Quite by accident, but happily, the class of '55 has been reunited and have a gay time getting reacquainted.

INITIATION!!!

The sophomore class initiated the freshmen in October. Everyone had to dress up in various costumes and in the afternoon they performed in the assembly for the students and faculty.

That evening a party was held in the gym for the freshmen. The gym was decorated in a Halloween scene and the students participated in dancing. After the dance, lunch was served, consisting of sandwiches, cocoa, cake, and ice cream.

Everyone enjoyed the initiation very much and we are glad to welcome the freshmen to the hall of higher learning. As we go, the seniors wish the best of luck and lots of fun to these and all the rest who take our place!

Grade Basketball

We started our season early in December by defeating Pembine 42 to 19 and we felt we were off to a victorious season. We were disappointed, however when we ran into trouble with Goodman, on our own floor, and found ourselves 7 points behind when the game was finished.

With greater determination to chalk up another victory, we tackled Wausaukee, but to our disappointment we ended up with two losses. Next we fell victim to the Daggett Wildcats and allowed them to have the first game, 32 to 10. In the second game we lost by only 2 points.

We took Crivitz in the next game and finished the season with a game at Pembine giving us the victory.
